8-compartment Traex® flatware basket in cocoa

With the Traex flatware basket by Vollrath, cleaning your flatware becomes an easy, efficient task. The unique design of these baskets allows two of them to fit in a full-size open rack, maximizing output, and the eight separate compartments keep your flatware organized. Perforated sides ensure superior cleaning and faster drying. These baskets nest within their families when not in use to simplify storage and save space, making these flatware baskets an excellent choice for any kitchen.
