VOLLRATH

N3411

11-inch Centurion® frying pan with nonstick coating

Ideal for frying, scrambling, sautéing and searing, the Centurion frying pan by Vollrath is a valuable addition to your kitchen. The heavy-duty stainless steel construction resists discoloration and corrosion, allowing this pan to last for years, and prevents flavor retention for higher-quality results. This pan is induction-ready and features a nonstick coating that ensures even heating, smooth release and easy cleaning. A strong handle offers a comfortable grip, and a hang-hole promises convenient storage, while the rolled pan edge provides additional strength.
