32 ¾-quart Centurion® stainless steel sauce pot

The Vollrath® Centurion stainless steel sauce pot allows you to simmer soups and stews, cook pasta and more with ease. The heavy-duty stainless steel construction resists discoloration and corrosion, allowing this pot to last for years, and prevents flavor retention for higher-quality results. The natural finish ensures consistent heating and uniform cooking, while hollow handles stay cool and provide convenient transportation. The induction-ready design adds versatility, making this sauce pot a versatile, valuable addition to your high-volume kitchen.
