Cubic Display Cutting Board Tables

Elevate your buffet presentations with this full size display cutting board table. Featuring a rich black, wood base, and a natural-finish wood cutting board, this set includes everything you need to create visually-appealing displays, with a hint of height. Use it to show off your signature appetizers or desserts, or for displaying sushi, charcuterie, or small sandwiches. The durable wood design makes each piece easy to wipe clean after use, yet gives this set a solid weight and feel. This display cutting board table is perfect for any event - from fine dining to casual catered affairs. Use it to elevate your dishes, without detracting from your decor. Pair it with other heights of the same style, or use it alone for smaller displays. No matter the use, elevating your foods off the table will increase their perceived value, adding to the ambiance of the occasion
