Deluxe six-piece Optio™ cookware set

The deluxe six-piece Optio cookware set by Vollrath is a comprehensive collection of versatile cookware that any chef is sure to love. The stainless steel construction resists discoloration and corrosion, allowing these items to last for years, and prevents flavor retention for higher-quality results. These cookware pieces are induction-ready and feature a natural finish for even heating and uniform cooking. Designed with strong welded handles that feature hang-holes, these cookware pieces offer a comfortable grip and convenient storage.
