Small 2-tier clear acrylic classic baked goods display case with front access

Designed to draw your customer's eye, the 2-tier clear acrylic baked goods display case by Vollrath ensures all your beautiful creations are highly visible. The heavy-duty acrylic construction promises years of use, and the classic style features a simple, but effective, design. The included black trays and self-service front doors ensure convenient restocking and service. Rubber feet prevent unwanted movement and protect your countertops, so you can place this display case wherever it's needed most, making it an excellent choice for storing and displaying all your delicious baked goods.
